

CALL FOR ABSTRACTS

Eighth Annual Stanford Undergraduate Psychology Conference

Saturday, May 17th, 2008
Jordan Hall, Stanford University

Keynote Speaker: Dr. Albert Bandura

Professor Bandura is David Starr Jordan Professor of Social Sciences in Psychology at Stanford University, where he has been on the faculty since 1953. The author of nine books and countless articles, Bandura has been the recipient of numerous awards for his invaluable contributions to the field. He has served as President of both the APA and WPA, and has been elected to the American Academy of Arts and Sciences and the Institute of Medicine of the National Academy of Sciences. Professor Bandura's work has been instrumental in the development of social cognitive and self-efficacy theories, and their applications to fields as diverse as life-course development, education, health, psychopathology, athletics, business, and international affairs.

ABSTRACT DEADLINE: MARCH 24TH, 2008

SUPC is sponsored in part by the Department of Psychology, Psi Chi, and the School of Humanities and Sciences at Stanford University

For more information and to register online, please visit the conference website at:

www.stanfordconference.org